Discover what makes a book rare. View a variety of rare books and manuscripts from various periods including a 13th century Vulgate Bible to 20th century classic Americana.

Participants may bring one or two books which may be chosen for discussion as part of the presentation.

Michael Dooling has over 35 years of experience with rare books and manuscripts including Americana, early printing, fine binding and original handwritten diaries and manuscripts.

Registration is recommended. Call 860-242-5573, ext. 115 to sign up. The program is open to the public. A donation of $5.00 is suggested.
